Welcome to Sparky's Hunt, a short game based on a popular Youtube channel, Sparky's Dog Attack!. Made for mobile, Sparky's Hunt: The Adventure Begins keeps the casual aspect of that game while raising the scope, characters and story of the video game. Be prepared to use your wits while you solve each level, hunting for clues and solving puzzles. Face deadly minigames and react quickly to each situation while trying to keep Sparky out of your home. Uncover secrets and discover the final conclusion to what could happen. Experience multiple levels of scare, panic and confusion as you try to keep Sparky and her friends out of your home, react quickly to dire situations and last until sunrise. Each invader has a different quality and random events guarantee that every time you play is a unique experience. Survive the week and don't get killed. Find the radio to gain a clue on what to do each level. Solve the puzzle box to unlock a special ability on each level. The clue is on the wall next to it. Unlock additional levels once the week is complete. A: In addition to the "meta" answer, I would like to point out that Sparky's Hunt is not a story-driven game. It is a game for agoraphobia, and presents a realistic scenario. You can kill Sparky at any time, but if you finish the game before sunrise, you'll get a fatal heart attack and your legacy will end. I find it very realistic, and I also like the atmosphere that it creates.

Dose reconstruction for CT-based treatment verification in intensity-modulated arc therapy for pancreas cancer. To develop and evaluate a method for CT-based treatment verification of pancreas cancer patients treated with intensity-modulated arc therapy (IMAT). Dose distribution and range were assessed with CT-based imaging (contours) and diodes (calibrated) for 10 pancreas cancer patients previously treated with IMAT. Calibrated diode and contour-based measurement data were used as an estimate of true dose distribution to calculate the average overall dose distribution (AOD), the dose distribution outside the target volume (ODT), the percent of ODT, the mean dose difference between contours and diodes (DIF), the mean dose difference between diodes and diodes (DFD), the percentage

Fullscreen Support, Speed Hack (the game runs smoother when the game is run in a window that was already created) The game will consist in 4 levels, with around 20~30 different cars that are obtainable during game. You can customize your car by completing various challenges (CBB level, CAP level...), they are unlocked when you obtain a certain amount of points. When you fall from one vehicle to another and the game is paused, you lose a life, but you can continue from checkpoint instead of starting the game from the beginning. You can also use checkpoints when you get caught by the police. You can obtain checkpoints by punching the opponent, or by donating to the garage. After all the challenges have been completed, you will unlock a new game mode with more challenging opponents and a greater amount of cars! BUGS: All crashes are fixed (sorry for the inconvenience). 0.3-x- Faster and smoother. 0.3-x- Added missing cars. 0.3-x- Added extra checkpoints. 0.3-x- Crash bug fixed. 0.3-x- Minor fixes and improvements. A few things have been improved (e.g. added almost all cars, fixed cars) and a few things are missing (e.g. start and end points are added). All this is a work in progress, so expect bugs. *If you want to play with vehicles, you have to install the official HL mod first. Competition: Transnationally and Internationally The 100 US Fund is very excited to be a sponsor of the Transnationally and Internationally Artbook Competition (TIA) for its 18th year. Although the jury's decisions and selections are final, we invite you to submit your high quality artbooks as representative examples of book production to The 100 US Fund. TIA will once again use its kudos and promotion, and highlight the excellence of books in an effort to demonstrate how the execution of a book is as important as its content, and how the quality of a book is representative of the quality of the images that make it. In keeping with the theme of "Transnationally and Internationally" the jury's selections are chosen based upon the amount of collaborations and links from overseas. The focus will be on books that have enjoyed wide distribution and media coverage. The jury has encouraged entries from all over the world, so don't feel compelled to restrict your attention to current events. What is the Submission Criteria? 1) The artwork shown must be reproducible with standard printing processes, 2) The artwork must reflect the author or artist's purpose and intent of the book, 3) The artistic aspect must stand alone and not depend on any text, with the exception of a page or two dedicated to the production of the book, 4) The quality of the book's design must be recognized and acknowledged by the audience in terms of production, in addition to being a memorable product, 5) Lastly, the book must have been built by an artistically competent person. What will the Book be Worth? Since this is a competition of excellence, the book can only be judged for its importance to the artist or author. This will not be a contest in which a book is valued purely on the basis of its monetary worth. A very important part of the quality of the book is to view its artistic worth. The promotion of this competition is a careful balancing act. The jury has decided to choose a minimum price point of $100 in order to be significant to artists and writers across the world. What is the Submission Process? Each submission should be entered online via this form by logging in and filling out the form and submit the form using the "PUSH" button. Submissions should include the link to the artist's website or book's website in case the details are needed to be entered in the online form. If the link is not

Comments Hey! I know this is somewhat off-topic but I needed to ask. Does operating a well-established website such as yours require a massive amount work? I am brand new to blogging but I do write in my diary every day. I'd like to start a blog so I can easily share my experience and views online. Please let me know if you have any recommendations or tips for brand new aspiring bloggers. Appreciate it! graduated academics will be offered an exemption from the new "suicide clause” imposed by universities, provided they sign a pledge to seek employment. The National Union of Students (NUS) has campaigned for the policy change, which is expected to start in the autumn of this year. The clause, which is designed to combat the issue of stress and suicide, is a legal requirement for those who receive financial support from the Student Finance Agency. But NUS president Aaron Porter said in a letter sent to all universities earlier this week that the suicide clause contained in its new constitution is “unnecessary”. He added that the union is “concerned that the effect of the suicide clause upon the mental health and wellbeing of graduates can be disproportionate”. The clause states that those who are unable to find work are prohibited from applying for further student support for the rest of their degree. The union is asking universities to allow graduating students to sign a waiver so they are not held to the clause. This is because graduate salaries are not guaranteed by the university, unlike undergraduate ones, and will fluctuate depending on future employment. In 2016, the Association of Graduate Guardian Officers (AGGO) published statistics that showed 50 per cent of graduate workers' salaries have fallen by up to 30 per cent since graduating. According to the data, 87 per cent of students who graduated in 2016 were unable to find graduate-level work due to the low value of their degrees. In response to Mr Porter's letter, three institutions - Cardiff University, Queen Mary University of London and the University of Glasgow - have
