FINAL FANTASY VI - Mobile Game (UPDATES WANTED)

Hello. This project is a mobile game based on FINAL FANTASY VI, This game includes a story inspired from this video game.

It's in a really early stage, but if you are willing to give me feedback, I'm really grateful. This is a mobile game, so if the app is easy to download on iOS, android, and iphone, I'll be really happy :) The story is still in development and I have no intention to release a incomplete game.

Jasmine Project

My little sister is making a video game, she's 13 and is very well prepared...

It's a platformer, kind of.

We call it Jasmine Project.

We're a team of 3, we're almost done.

Coder : me, a 15 year old high school guy, who knows js, html, php, and some other languages

Sound!painter : my little sister, who is 13, she's very talented and it's her first time doing a full game, so we have to rely on someone else :D

We have a designer online, but when he doesn't want to work on her game, well it's a hard spot. The good thing is, the game is pretty close to be completed, but if you have any suggestion to make it better, it's always very appreciated.

As for now, the releases might be short but we'll try to release 2 to 4 times a month. If you want to follow the development, you can follow her on her facebook page and if you want to give a bonus <3, you can give her a shoutout on her facebook page, she thinks is really nice if you like her work

Shoutout : me, salmariis, SOUND PAINTER
