You're a normal human! You can only take so much punishment. A few bullets and you're toast. Explosions? Forget it! You're dead! The Agent is back! On his last mission, his BODYGUARD was killed and a younger Agent joined up with him. The other Agent left the country in order to provide cover while Agent's friend, a scientist, unleashed his greatest creation on the world. Now, the only two agents left with the power to stop the mad doctor from unleashing a new series of mutants are the now 35-year old Agent and the 15-year-old Agent. Play through over 20 years of their missions as they deal with a new generation of gun-toting maniacs, 3D environments, and of course, a heapin' helpin' of acid-washed mayhem! Key Features: SIMS HARDWARE MODE - Battle through classic 2D side-scrolling action! PULSE-POWERED ONLINE MULTIPLAYER - Join the fray against 60+ online opponents to take on the world! What's New in Version 1.0.2: Updated game and game modes The wait is over! Phew! We finally delivered! This update, as you can see, is pretty small. We've put a lot of work into this re-release and we hope you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed bringing it to you.
