Motion-based camera turns everyone into a top-tier AI player. The game engine has been rebuilt to combine motion capture data with the physics engine to create the fastest, most realistic gameplay experience ever. Players react to your every movement, turning the sport into an intensely-realistic, physics-based first person action game. Introducing five key gameplay innovations that deliver the most authentic and realistic FIFA gameplay experience yet: Defending: play 1:3, defend your goal with your entire team, and use the ball where it's most effective – by taking advantage of the high-energy passing and team-wide movement that can only be experienced in the game. Match Control: find the right balance between control and chaos with authentic matches, where players are constantly adjusting their positioning and personality based on the situation. Player Impact: watch how your players move with ease in motion capture that emulates their actions on the pitch, with all-new collision impacts that increase the speed and intensity of play, and player shots that feel like they've just kicked the ball – moving in true-to-life kinetics. Passing: see the whole pitch – from any position – and hear players communicating in the game while the ball moves faster than ever before. Player Personality: the most in-depth, authentic player movements and pass animations in the franchise's history, with thousands of animations that make key plays, decisions, and key moments possible. Taking on the largest roster in the series, FIFA 22 includes the iconic Ronaldo, Gareth Bale, Cesc Fabregas, Wayne Rooney, and more as official game characters who make their marks in the National Team and professional leagues on one of the biggest playing surfaces in the world – the pitch. Look for the original tracklist featuring 16,000 licensed songs from 800+ artists. One of the most popular e-sports titles at Gamescom 2018, FIFA 19 was the launch title for the Xbox One X and is now available on PlayStation®4, Windows PC, iOS and Android devices. In terms of gameplay, FIFA 19 offers a host of new features and innovations: Motion-based camera turns everyone into a top-tier AI player.
