Today, the Serbian state has not become a safe and democratic space. Instead, it has become a place of abuse, plunder and violence, where property rights are often given only to those in power. Serbian arms are being used to commit atrocities in the region. Freedom, human rights, fundamental equality and democracy are being trampled upon by the Serbian state. Its leaders have absolutely no regard for the good name of the state. They don't care about anything and everything else. But their disregard for everything else has been on full display today. They have shown disrespect for European values, the rule of law and the fundamental freedoms in the name of their own authority. And what Serbia's leaders have been doing today shows that their only plan is to continue on the path of disruption and security risks. One of the worst parts of the recent events is that they are not only unwanted by Serbia's democratic forces, but also by the vast majority of Serbs. National unity and stability have become endangered as a result of it. I can tell you, as
