Saturday, 25 September 2016 The Life of Jesus Christ Read the full text at Texts: Luke 3:1-18 Thursday 22nd September 2016 Pastor's Thoughts: The Life of Jesus Christ Luke begins his Gospel with the story of Jesus growing in faith. He is portrayed as growing up in Nazareth, where he learns about God and the wonders of the world. From our first childhood, we learn who God is. We learn about our human nature and what we can do as human beings. From the age of 12, we can learn about the kingdom of God and some of the things God has planned for the world. What struck me last week was how God works through Jesus. Jesus doesn't just seem to be born into saviourhood: he seems to have time to grow up and develop as a person. When Jesus was 12, he was baptised. Baptism was a way of announcing to the world that he belonged to God, and was on the verge of becoming a Christian (not that he had to do it to become a Christian - anyone can become a Christian by faith). The moment he did this, he was given the responsibility to prepare others for coming into the kingdom of God. A small boy growing up in Nazareth, he would learn about God, about the world. One thing was for sure: there was a God who had created the world. He spoke through his prophets and saw where God was leading his people. He sent Moses as a prophet to the people of Israel and told Moses to come back with the people and make a new covenant with God. The people of Israel disobeyed, and so God declared that he had changed his mind. They would not hear the word of God 6d1f23a050
