Now he stands as a reflection of the best that man can be. "The Progression of Muhammad Ali" includes Ali's favorite quotations from Einstein, Shakespeare, Jack Kerouac, and other important figures. In addition, it offers a detailed personal history of his life, including an account of the circumstances surrounding his four career battles with Joe Frazier. This edition also includes the text of Ali's last will and testament, the text of a petition filed in his name on June 25, 1991, and the text of a letter from the Arab League requesting Ali's citizenship be restored. Topics include: A brief history of Muhammad Ali from his birth, with unique contributions from his father, mother, and others. The hero's journey as Ali persevered as he finally achieved greatness. An intimate look at the soul of an American hero. The truth of his fears and demons before, during, and after the obligatory shots in the head.
